

INKPEN BEACON

From INKPEN Beacon the path follows the ridge before turning south down Sheepless Hill, past Coombe Wood, onto a beautiful valley and up to Linkenholt. Then onto the Hamlet of Ibthorpe and into HURSTBOURNE TARRANT. Exiting into woods at Wallop Hill Down. And then west to ST. MARY BOURNE.

Hurstbourne Tarrant

St. Mary Bourne

Continuing on a path to the South West, the path climbs up to Lower Wyke, past Faulkners Down Farm, and down the eastern edge of Harewood Forest into LONGPARISH.

Longparish

Through the churchyard to Forton, and an old track back into Harewood Forest, the path runs into the valley again at Wherwell. Then across the Test to CHILBOLTON Common and thence to West Down.

Chilbolton

From West Down the path follows a disused railway track beside the river into the old drovers village of STOCKBRIDGE.

Stockbridge

Crossing STOCKBRIDGE Common, the way crosses the valley between Kings Somborne and Houghton, and past the former station at Horsebridge. Then across the valley and meadows to the edge of MOTTISFONT by the National trust House.

Mottisfont

Over a river bridge, through a wood the path returns to the road and farm tracks to Awbridge. Then into Test Meadows to the Mill buildings in the edge of ROMSEY.

Romsey

Going south along the A31, the path sets off into fields round the Broadlands Estate, onto Moorcourt and over the river Blackwater. Thence onto Nursling House and church. Just past Manor House Farm the path turns west over the river and into the Lower Test Nature reserve - a marshland area. Thence past a picturesque mill down to the edge of TOTTON, to the Salmon Leap pub.

TOTTON
